The town of Bad Reichenhall is in the State of Bavaria, Germany. It lies to the South of Munich and at the border to Austria. It is best known for its beautiful landscape, thermal waters and mineral salt, surrounded by mountains, as well as the close proximity to the historical Austrian city of Salzburg.

For those who come for the first time, we have gathered some information such as transport from Munich airport or Salzburg, accommodation possibilities and general information while staying in Bad Reichenhall.

Arriving from Munich:

The car ride from Munich airport to Bad Reichenhall takes about 1 hour and 40 minutes.

There are trains leaving regularly from Munich Central Station (München Hbf. – München Hauptbahnhof) going to Bad Reichenhall, which can be consulted in English on the website of the German Railway service (DB - Deutsche Bahn) www.db.de.

The trains leaving Munich airport to the Central Station are the S1 and S8.

There is train that goes every hour to Freilassing. There you can change to the train (BLB) going to Bad Reichenhall every half hour.

Arriving from Salzburg:

When arriving at Salzburg airport the car ride to Bad Reichenhall takes about 15 minutes. A taxi ride from the airport to Bad Reichenhall will cost about € 30,00.

There are several bus lines going to the city center as well as to the Central Station (Salzburg Hbf.) and to Bad Reichenhall that depart regularly from the airport. The bus line 180 takes you there in about 25 minutes.

Special transfer service

There is a special transfer service that offers transfers to and from the airports in Munich and Salzburg. Should you choose to travel in a group or several people, you can contact them via e-mail or phone to schedule your transport to or from Bad Reichenhall.

The service is called SMS (www.flughafentransfer.at - website only in German)
